President's Report:

- Salinas has officially closed. Inventory had a return of about $4,000 to marathon distributors and some small open inventory sent to Santa Cruz. Most inventory had been used on the double bingo day.

Financial Report:

- Bank
 - Current balance is $484,473.
 - The financial reports were not completed this month and Rowe makes a motion to review and approve both March and April financials in the next meeting. Brondstratter seconds all approve.

Current Funds Requests:

- None.

Existing Agenda items

- Coaches Dinner
 - Scopazzis is confirmed. Evite sent.
 - Rowe to review responses and do individual outreaches for coaches not responded.
 - Rowe to get award from Brinks this Friday.
- Volunteers
 - Shifting of bingo volunteers will be requested by Rowe based on a graduating senior, a volunteer that requested to work a different monday due to conflicting schedules. We will be short volunteers but shifting some of the staff will allow for better coverage.
- Scholarships
 - Board approved $10k for original budget that we would re-evaluate after scholarships submitted.

- A total of 15 requests were submitted, 1 kid did not meet criteria. Brondstratter made a motion to approve all 14 kids for an increased budget of $14k. Rowe seconds all approve.
- Sizemore to send date of event to Boosters so we can see who attend event
- Potential send to Jim Seimus the details of the awards to visibility of boosters. Brondstretter to review as has contact.

R Scarborough made a motion to adjourn at 7:04 pm. Rowe Seconds.
