President's Report:

- Keeping close tabs on Bingo revenue to ensure the financial state of bingo for our main fundraiser.
- Discussions had on additional ways to do fundraising
 - M Scarborough to inquire with Wild Roots to see if we can do a community day.
 - Sutcliffe provided opportunities such as student store to sale merchandise and golf events (not a tournament) to have per hole side bets to support individual sports teams.

Financial Report:

- Total in the bank is $360,081 as of today.
- January Bingo had a $2k loss however with February expecting to break even. Continue to monitor it.
- The team accounts have $113k with the general booster fund having ~$200k to contribute to fund requests.

Brondstratter to approve the Finance report. M Scarborough to second. All approve

Current Funds Requests:

- Boys Volleyball
 - 6 volleyballs ~$210. New net ~$324. Uniforms for increased roster ~$600. Currently no funds in boys volleyball account

Brondstratter makes a motion to approve $1200 to come out of Boosters to cover costs with the contingency that Boys Volleyball send an email to request donations from parents M Scarborough to second. All approve

- Baseball
 - $2300 in baseballs, ~$4k for invalid drag and $629 for hats.

M Scarborough makes a motion for baseball costs to be covered by boosters and all other costs to come out of baseball account. K Edwards second. All approve.

New Business:

- Coaches Dinner
 - Historically coaches dinners have been done late in the school year. This has been problematic with seasons not being completed, conflicting schedule.

M Scarborough makes a motion for coaches dinner to be moved to August/September and be a welcome coach dinner as well as celebrating previous years achievements. Edwards Second. All Approve.

M Scarborough made a motion to adjourn at 7:38 pm. Brondstratter Seconds. All approve
